FURNIVAL CHAMBERS, recently recognised in all areas by “The Legal 500” and “Chambers & Partners”, is a criminal set with a substantial and increasing workload in defence, prosecution and regulatory work at all levels, with many of its members listed as leaders in their field.

Chambers is urgently seeking to recruit established practitioners and, additionally, junior tenants under 5 years call, to meet this growing workload.

Defence work: Chambers is seeking established practitioners with a proven track record in meeting the needs of clients, particularly those involved in multi-handed, homicide, fraud, and large-scale drugs cases. There are opportunities for the right candidates to enhance their existing practice.

Prosecution work: There are opportunities for those that hold a CPS grade 2 and upwards to develop their practice as we are frequently working at full capacity at these levels. Chambers is particularly keen to hear from those who hold a CPS grading of 3 and 4, and who are also on the RASSO panel, to allow Chambers to meet the demand from CPS areas who give regular instructions in this type of work.

We also have opportunities for third six month pupils.

You will receive an exceptional clerking and support service and a highly competitive charging structure within Furnival Chambers’ friendly and supportive environment.

Applications, which will be treated in confidence, are invited from individuals as well as groups to:
